Poll Hours and Election Preparedness Presidential Preference Primary January 31, 2012

Lake County, FL – Emogene W. Stegall, Supervisor of Elections, announces the polls for the January 31, 2012 Presidential Preference Primary (PPP) will be open from 7:00 AM to 7:00 PM for qualified voters. By law, Florida is a closed primary state and as such, the PPP is a partisan election for registered Republicans only. There are no Democratic candidates, minor party candidates or amendments on the ballot.

Some things voters should be aware of for the Presidential Preference Primary are:

- 1. Voters may NOT change party at the polls. Applications for party changes were due in the Supervisor of Elections Office by book closing date, January 3, 2012
- 2. Voters must present photo and signature ID when voting, or must vote a Provisional Ballot.
- 3. Voters who have moved to Lake County from another Florida county should report their address change to the Supervisor's office before Tuesday, January 31, 2012, or they will be statutorily required to vote a Provisional Ballot.
- 4. Voters new to Florida who have never voted in Florida must have submitted a voter registration application by book closing date, January 3, 2012, in order to be eligible to vote in this election.
- 5. Your polling location is on your Voter Information Card or online at this website
- 6. Voters may check their registration status online at this website.
