Elected Officials Begin Office at
First Regular Council Meeting
Following Election Effective
November 3, 2009

Elected officials take office in January following election. The City will operate more efficiently, and Council will be more productive if elected officials assume their position at the first regular City Council meeting following their election.

Shall Article III, Section 3.03, Charter of Groveland be amended to provide that elected council members and mayor shall take office at the first regular City Council meeting following their election, rather than in January following their election?

YES

NO
